WEEKLY LESSON PLAN – WEEK 6

FRIDAY	Select a model reader to read a Quran verse that talks about the birth and early life of Prophet Mohammed to the class. “There has certainly come to you a Messenger from among yourselves. Grievous to him is what you suffer; [he is] concerned over you and to the believers is kind and merciful.” [Quran, Surah At-Tawbah, 9:128]	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Discuss the call of Prophet Mohammed with the Learners. 2. Learners in small groups to discuss and report to the class about the birth, early life and the call the indigenous religious leaders. Eg. Okomfo Anokye, Agya Ahor, TohaZie, Togbe Tsali. The Birth of Prophet Mohammed;  On a radiant Monday night, more than 1,000 years ago, a pure and chosen expecting woman named Āminah ibn Wahb gave birth in the Year of the Elephant. The Hadith master Bayhaqī transmits via his chain back to ‘Uthmān ibn Abī al-‘Āṣ, who said: “My mother narrated to me that on that very night, she witnessed Āminah ibn Wahb give birth to the Messenger of Allah .ﷺ She said, “Every single thing I laid my eyes on inside the house was illuminated. I would notice the stars drawing so close that it would seem as if they were about to collapse upon me.” Early Life of Prophet Mohammed; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He ﷺ was reliant on Allāh → many events in his life show that he always turned to Allāh for help and believed that His Lord would take care of him. An embodiment of tawakkul and imaan. • He ﷺ was focused on his mission → despite the setbacks, the resistance, the taunting and the disbelief that surrounded him. He remained firm on his mission, he prayed for the right companions and he was hopeful and intelligent with his time. He followed the commands of Allāh and shared the message to anyone and everyone. Today, due to his compassion, vision and work, the world is transformed. • He ﷺ was trustworthy, honest and sincere → With himself, his family, his companions, his community and us. He loved us very much and 	Reflect on the moral lessons derived from the early life and the call of the religious leaders. Exercise; Write about the birth and early life of Prophet Mohammed.

		his blessed heart was filled with mercy. No one loves anyone the way the Prophet ﷺ loved us and our imaan is not complete until we love him more than everybody else. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• He ﷺ was a mercy to all of us → his sound moral, consideration, compassion and his life – with which he showed us the way to attain the mercy of Allāh.
