Psalm 19:1-2

For the choir director. A Psalm of David.
The heavens are telling of the glory of God;
And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.
Day to day pours forth speech,
And night to night reveals knowledge.

Psalm 8:1-9

For the choir director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of David.
O LORD, our Lord,
How majestic is Your name in all the earth,
Who have displayed Your splendor above the heavens!
From the mouth of infants and nursing babes You have established strength
Because of Your adversaries,
To make the enemy and the revengeful cease.
When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained

Psalm 36:5

Your loving kindness, O LORD, extends to the heavens,
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

Matthew 6:30

Verse Concepts
But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!

If God so clothe the grass of the field ...
shall He not much more clothe you?

That I would be his equal?” says the Holy One.
Lift up your eyes on high
And see who has created these stars,
The One who leads forth their host by number,
He calls them all by name;
Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of His power,
Not one of them is missing.

| THURSDAY | Review Learners knowledge on the previous lesson. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Discuss with the Learners on ways nature reveals the wonder of God’s character.</li> <li>2. Learners brainstorm to explain how to apply God’s character in their daily lives.</li> <li>3. Assist Learners to dramatize on how to apply God’s character in their daily lives.</li> </ol> 1. The Sun Reveals God’s Life, Hope, and Wisdom God is the ultimate light, and the sun shines a spotlight on that reality. The sun symbolizes life that comes from a loving Creator who cares for creation. It shows us God’s fiery love, which motivates him to give us life and sustain our lives. The Bible calls God the “sun of righteousness” in Malachi 4:2, “true light” in John 1:9, “light of the world” in John 8:12, “consuming fire” in Deuteronomy 4:24 and Heb. 12:29, “refiner’s fire” in Malachi 3:2, and “bright morning star” in Revelation 22:16. Just as all forms of life on Earth need sunlight to grow physically, we need the light of loving relationships with God to grow spiritually. 2. Water Reveals God’s Salvation Work, Clarity, Purity, and Mercy Water splashes God’s salvation work into our focus. In John 4:10, Jesus uses the term “living water” to declare his role as the world’s Savior. A few verses later, Jesus uses the imagery of water to describe his gift of salvation: “but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” (John 4:14). Water, which is essential for our bodies to thrive, points us toward saving relationships with God so our souls can thrive. 3. Rocks Reveal God’s Trustworthiness, Handiwork, and Eternal Yet Dynamic Nature Rocks, which are reliably strong, point to the fact God is | Learners in small groups to discuss what the world would be like without key elements of God’s creation and present it in class. |

|  |  | trustworthy. The Bible calls God “rock” in First Corinthians 10:4, “living stone” in 1 Peter 2:4, and “cornerstone” in Isaiah 28:16. Any type of rock can inspire awe in us, which deepens our trust in God. As Deuteronomy 32:4 declares: “He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.” 4. Trees Reveal God’s Wisdom, Protection, and Connected Presence Trees grow our perspective so we can understand more of God’s wisdom and protection for us. Jeremiah 33:15 uses tree imagery in a prophecy about Jesus coming to Earth in the future. “In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David’s line; he will do what is just and right in the land.” Trees, which stand tall as silent guardians of all around them, can help us put roots into the solid ground of God’s loving care for us. |  |
